

Title : Do You Believe

Composer : Martin Tang

Lyricist : Martin Tang

All I hear are cries from the dark
Saying why was this meant to be
Seems this world's so unkind
Now, I find I don't need to know
What's on your mind

Seeking truth that others elude
Lies are a state of the mind
To the tears eyes go blind, Now I found
I don't need to know what's on your mind

* Seems we're always contemplating
Times are changing, rearranging
But if we call the tune
We'll see some changes soon

Chorus

Do you believe, I believe in love X2
Do you believe, I believe in you and me
Cause I believe in love, I believe in love

Time and again, sorrow and pain
Somehow they remain
Tender hearts bleed in time
Now I find, I don't need to know what's on your mind

Repeat * — Chorus
