

Title : The Last Tiger

Composer : Pam Oei & Lim Kay Siu

Lyricist : Pam Oei & Lim Kay Siu

She whispers through the wind
She's looking for a friend
But there's no reply for a thousand miles around
No reply at all

A voice she knows too well
Is calling out her name
But it's not her time to leave just yet
And so she runs away

Tiger tiger burn on bright
Won't you hide yourself for me
If you run on out of sight
Then maybe one day you'll be free

She stops to catch her breath
The trees have long since gone
There's been fire in the sky of late
But she must carry on

Tiger tiger burn on bright
Won't you hide yourself for me
Though your world is not quite right
Why don't they just let you be?

How long has it been?
You're all alone again
I apologize
We took them all away

Tiger tiger burn on bright
Won't you hide yourself for me
Hold up high your dying light
You will shine for all to see
