

Title : I Can't Wait

Composer : Famie Suliman

Lyricist : Famie Suliman

I can't wait no longer
Cos we're all behind the schedule
I guess you should know.

You keep on living in a smile and
you don't care about this someone's share.

Well, I don't know if you pretend.
Or is it me no, not again.
There's no need for you to say and I can't wait.

As the door is there for us
It took us quite some time to open up inside and be surprise.

Still I can't wait.

Don't be late, don't be late.
