

Title : Holding On

Composer : Taufik Batisah

Lyricist : Taufik Batisah

My world is closing in I'm so alone
The door is locked and nobody's home
Desire is the key that I must own
Emotions got me losing control
I'm losing control

But I know
It's the way that I must live
Even though
It's so unclear, so unfair
God I know
There's a path for everyone
I must believe and keep holding on

I'm wishing I was somebody else
This world left me all by myself
Now why do they keep playing with my mind
Trying to break me down trying to make me blind
But I see

Cuz I know
It's the way that I must live
Even though
It's so unclear, so unfair
God I know
There's a path for everyone
I must believe and keep holding on

God I know
There's a path for everyone
I must believe and keep holding on

Never let my fears conquer me
Cuz I know in my heart what I can be Holding on
