All these while I'm searching for a new way kind of life I just couldn't find.

Fantasy, it may seem are sitting on my mind
but these are lies.

Imagine when your up from sleep,
you begin to have kind of fear.

But I'm feeling heavy
yes my head is feeling heavy.
But I'm feeling heavy
yes my head is feeling heavy.

Take me to a place I 've never been before,
i can't take it here no more.

My eyes are droopy when your mouth starts talking too much. My ears start to ignore.

Your disturbing the peace of mind
And your disturbing the peace thru hologram.

Cos you got my peace disturb.
