

Title : Home Tonight

Composer : Richard Ferdinands

Lyricist : Richard Ferdinands

Sitting at the station, waiting for the train,
Too bad things didn't turn out right,
Sky's getting darker, and it looks like rain,
And I want to be home tonight

Don't feel sorry, you tried your best,
But it could have been a whole lot better,
What's the difference, we've failed the test,
When I get back I'll write you a letter,

What's the reason for my leaving,
There's no use in telling lies,
Your love was different,
Your love was changing,
I should have seen it in your eyes,

Standing at the junction,
Waiting for the bus,
And the rain keeps pouring from the sky,
Thinking 'bout this morning,
I've been thinking 'bout us,
Just thinking 'bout the way we said goodbye,

Two lonely hearts with different visions,
And a love that could not last,
Don't look for answers,
Too many reasons,
Think about the future,
Not the past,

Sitting at the station,
Waiting for the train,
Too bad things didn't turn out right,
Sky's getting darker,
and it looks like rain,

And I wanna be home tonight,
And I wanna be home tonight,
And I wanna be home tonight...
