

Title : Tell Me Why

Composer : Mel Ferdinands

Lyricist : Mel Ferdinands

Day after day, and night after night,
Its always the same but still you say its alright,
You can always tell I've been lying and cheating again,
But you say you love me,
I wonder why you do
Even though I've done the things that I shouldn't do,
Cause deep down inside I've caused you sorrow and pain

So tell me why do you still love me,
Cause I'm trying hard to understand,
You hear the same old lies again,
And still you take my hand,
Tell me why do you still love me,
Tell me why cause I just can't see,
How a love like yours could be meant for me

Many a time I tried to run and hide,
But your love saw me through and set me right,
You were there whenever I thought my whole life was through,
So many times when my life fell apart,
You helped me to my feet and you gave me a start,
You were always there whenever I needed you

So tell me why do you still love me,
Cause I'm trying hard to understand,
You hear the same old lies,
And still take my hand,
So tell me why do you still love me,
Tell me why cause I just can't see,
How a love like yours could be meant for me

So many times, so many times
I'd hide away in shame,
But I was playing a game,
That I couldn't win

How a love like yours could be meant for me
