

Title : Take Your Love Away

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

Can I remember when
All I ever wanted to be
Was in love
And did it all depend
On everything I had to believe
Or give up

So I let it go right to my head
In spite of what the wise ones said
I fell right under your spell
To my regret

CHORUS:

Take your love away from me
Take your love
Take your love away from me
Right now
Take your love away

Is there another way
I could say good-bye, it was all
A mistake.
Perhaps some other day
but don't be waiting up for my call
It's already too late
But you're the one who should feel bad
The easy life I could have had
I fell right under your spell
To my regret

Repeat Chorus

Bridge:

Isn't love suppose to be
A miracle, a mystery
All that I'm suppose to feel
Isn't happening for me
Not for me
