

Title : After The Fire

Composer : Ken Lim

Lyricist : Ken Lim

The truth in me that I've never seen
Has finally unveiled
Now I'm doing everything I can
To win you back once again

I can't imagine
What I will be without you
I'll take the pain that I've given you
If only I could

Chorus

After the fire
Your love is all I see
There is nothing that compares to you
Nothing as real
I hurt you so but I know I must find
Away right back to your arms
I'll do my all to Love you like I should

What's in a life when you lose someone
That makes you feel alive
I know it's late to realise
I know I can only try

Give me a chance to prove
I'll change my all just for you
There is nothing else that I would rather do
Everything is you
