

YOUTH STATION

ALIVE

BY NAVAL BASE
SECONDARY SCHOOL

*Here you are now, you're seventeen
In the light of teenage dreams and melodies
Look around now, there's so much love
Like paradise we have heard about of high above*

*As the river flows to the sea
All my wishes of wells are running dry
All these fears I cast aside
They come alive
(When there's so much love)*

*Here you are now, you're thirty
Your road is well-trodden with conniving pests
They'll breed
Your show must go on, though it's hard to breathe
Your conscience will be haunted by regrets that you've received*

*As the river flows to the sea
All my wishes of wells are running dry
All these fears I cast aside
They come alive
(When there's so much love)*

*Here you are now, you're seventy With shattered dreams that are written on your walls within
You're in pain now but that's alright
All your sons and daughters are right by your side*

*As the river flows to the sea
All my wishes of wells are running dry
All these love I cast aside
They come alive
(And there's so much love)*

WRITTEN BY:

Raymundo Seth Andre Pascua

MUSIC ARRANGED & PERFORMED BY:

Raymundo Seth Andre Pascua
(Vocals)