

Title : The Centre Of Asia

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

CHORUS

We all belong, deep in our hearts
In the centre of Asia
This is the point where it all will begin.
You realise, under these skies
Is the centre of Asia
Open the earth and swallow you in.

Where were you before?
Looking for a reason to be
Could you ask for more?
Now you've found your home do you see?

Through the sun and the rain
On the equator I'll be
Trapped by my desire,
Please come and free me.
