Verse 1

Those times I thought I'd lose my mind, you would always be so kind.
When I had to try and take a stand, you were always there to lend a hand.

Chorus

My friend, you are the one who showed you care.
My friend, you are the one who's always there.
And when the story ends, the curtains close.
My friend, we'll share a smile and say adios.

Verse 2

And those times I almost went insane, trying hard to bear the pain.
But you never thought to stop at all, you were always there to break my fall.

Chorus

My friend, you are the one who showed you care.
My friend, you are the one who's always there.
And when the story ends, the curtains close.
My friend, we'll share a smile and say adios.
