

Title : I MET A WOMAN

Composer : Dixie L.R.Ferdinands

Lyricist : Dixie L.R.Ferdinands

I met a woman, of my dream, she came to me in a fantasy last night,
Where did she go, I don't remember,
Hmmm, now it seems that woman really matters,

I miss that woman, I need her bad, I feel the pain, way deep down inside,
Oh never again, I don't ever wanna feel this pain,
Deep in my soul, it's burnin' my brain,

In my dream, she calls my name, over and over again,
But in reality , she's just a fantasy,
Oh she broke my heart, yeah, oh baby help me, no not again.

I want that woman, of my dream, even tho' I know that she's not what she seem,
She'll break my heart, come mid December.
What can I do, the wheel rolled out of my number,

In the night, I see her face, she's burnin' me up in a ragin' fantasy,
Then I awake, and she's not there anymore,
Oh come back to me, baby, don't go away, oh no not again,

I met a woman, of my dream, she came to me in a fantasy last night,
Where did she go, I don't remember,
Hmmm now it seems that woman really matters,
