

Title : For Love

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

* Would you do anything for love?
Try to do anything for love?
Say you'll do anything
Anything
For love

You say that you don't need me
Giving yourself's not easy
You claim to be romantic, then
You show me that you don't depend
On feelings you don't understand

You always say you'll phone me
Sometime's don't you get lonely?
You just pretend that nothing's wrong
You cry until your pride is gone
Then you'll know half the battle's won
Then let your feelings carry on

Repeat *

I know your heart is learning
To comprehend the yearning
But as your lover I'll explain
That every lover will proclaim
When there is love there will be pain
So let me ask you once again

Repeat *

Would you do anything? (Anything)
Why not do anything (Anything)
Say you'll do anything (Anything)
Got to do anything (Anything)
Anything!

Repeat *

Everything

For love
