She was the girl that you could see in pink bikinis made for keeps the semisonic slave of love you never knew until tonight oh! little missy won't you please just turn around so I could see I've never felt this way before I'm glad I've got this tape of yours I've been touched by a beautiful velveteen...,why did you have to be everybody's girl ? why did you have to be everybody's lurve? you are the woman of my dreams you are the master! you are the queen! please take the whip and teach me how to psyche myself up for tonight there was a time when I was down but you came on and I got up and there were times when I felt low but you begged me to do it slow
