

Title : Everything's So Right

Composer : Kevin Quah

Lyricist : Ken Lim

Whenever that you're Around
There's a flame that Shines right out your Captivating eyes drive me wild

You're the Rose that I've never had You're probably the Reason
For me to turn my World all Around

Bridge***

It's one Amazing ride, to have you by my side can't Resist your Love anymore

Chorus***

You're the fire that I'm Missing each Night
When you're near, Everything's Right
You're the Angel that's Guiding me through Heaven that is here on Earth
You're the Drive that's running thru' my mind
When you're close, Everything is Fine
You're making Everything so Right

Whenever there is crowd
A flame just shines right out
Looking at you makes it all Worthwhile

You're the friend that I never had
You deliver a reason
To make me Turn my Whole World Around
