

Title : All You've Got

Composer : Ricky Ho

Lyricist : Belinda Foo

Out of a dream, I saw my fate
I knew that I could be
Been through the pain
I rose above the mark that
I had made

Sheer hope gave me the power to carry on
Heaven helped me along the way
I scaled heights that I never imagined
Took myself to the peak
Now there's no stopping me

Chorus:

There's a rainbow within you
A pot of gold you must find
Keep your eyes on the vision
Don't let it out of your sight
Keep on pushing the limit
Defy the odds and just throw in all you've got

Just when you feel
You've nothing left
The giving's left you dry
That's when you need
To cast your hope and faith
To heart's desire

You can be who you want if you
Don't lose sight of your destiny

I scaled heights that I never imagined
Took myself to the peak
Now there's no stopping me

Chorus
