Composer : Christopher Boey

Lyricist : Bernice Ang

V

Walking down the street one day
And it's all the same
Thinking about the life we had
Where do we go from here

Monday blues as we drag our feet
Grudgingly passing by
Wondering how this world will turn
What's our purpose here

PC

'Cos we want to know
We all need an answer
'Cos we need to know
What are we waiting for?

C

Believe that you can accomplish
The things that you were meant for
No need to worry, we gotta stay happy

And even if the world stops turning
Your heart will tell you
To keep on moving

But you know what?
We're gonna make it someday

Turn the tables, light the candles
It's a new perspective
Widening our eyes to find
The beauty around us

Just a little change will go
A long way
Remember what it was that started everything

B

Life is unpredictable
You'll never know what you're gonna face

Just listen to the sound
Listen to the sound of your voice

We're gonna make it someday
We're gonna make it someday

We're gonna make it someday
We're gonna make it someday
We're gonna make it someday
We're gonna make it someday
