

Title : Mr. Moon's Confusion Groove

Composer : Syed Munir

Lyricist : Esam

Mister moon she's confused by your supernatural groove like a distant blinding star in a radiating sky I don't believe a single word you say but I was a believer you must be the devil in disguise mister moon don't be fooled by some superficial blues like a tuneless lullaby she's as vacant as her heart I can't believe we're accidental fools but I was a believer you must be the devil in disguise mister moon sings a cold sentimental lullaby she's a dead star in the sky kiss her goodbye from afar I can't believe we're accidental fools but I was a believer... was a believer
