

Title : River Of Life

Composer : Martin Tang

Lyricist : Martin Tang

1) At the edge of a dead end street,
I can hear my name,
Echoed voices crying in the wind.
Saying things will change.

XXX(1) And I can't wait for love.
I, I can't wait for love

2) Heavy heart's hunger for the truth pulling at these chains
Still we sing of another day
When there'll be no pain

XXX(2) And I, I can't wait for love
No I, I can't wait for your love, for another day

CHORUS

Because The River of Life runs high
The River of Life runs high tonight
The River of Life runs high here in my heart.

3) Silent screams of a million minds.
Was it just in vain.
Bullets fly. As innocence fades.
In this crazy game.

Repeat XXX(2) CHORUS
