Hello to you
Yes I am fine
No I haven't, have you?
She turns away
I make a face
Something rude goes down in my mind

Such & such a person knows Mr. Such & Such Such & such's boyfriend drives such & such a car
Such & such a dress costs so much
Go and talking till you're dry
I'll stay here as such

I look around
Another comes
I smile and nod and think he's boring
He tells me now
Of stocks and shares
I stifle down the biggest of all yawns

Such & such a person buys such & such amounts
Such & such is seeing a model now
Such & such's father bought such & such a house
Go on talking till you're dry
I'll stay here as such

Don't ever want to be you completely
Too scared to want to be me
Spellbound and spun around, I fail to see
I must forget what I've seen
I must forget where I've been
I must forget how to scream
I must forget what I mean

Hello to you
Yes I am fine
Aren't you the one who broke my heart
He looks away
And says aloud

I'm so sorry it wasn't time
Such & such a card played such & such a day
Such & such a day he'll come out to play
Such & such an evening
Such & such was said
Go on talking till you're dry
I'll stay here as such
